No. 1120000851 with immediate effect

1.The National Taiwan Art Education Center (hereinafter referred to as the "Center"), in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 13 of the Act of Gender Equality in Employment as well as Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 7 of the Sexual Harassment Prevention Act, sets out the Disposal Directions in order to protect its employees, dispatch workers, job seekers, trainees and service personnel (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties") from sexual harassment, and, should such harassment occur, to take appropriate corrective, remedial, complaint, punishment and other measurements to protect the rights and privacy of the parties hereto.

2. The term "sexual harassment" referred to in these Disposal Directions, depending on the relationship between the parties, denotes any of the following situations:

(1) The application of the Act of Gender Equality in Employment:

The term Sexual harassment refers to, while the preceding parties are performing their duties, any sexual demands and words or behaviors conducted by any person (including officers at all levels, employees, clients, etc. ...) with sexual meaning or gender-based discrimination that generates a hostile, coercive or offensive work environment which infringes upon the said Parties' personal dignity and personal liberty, or affects their performance; or the express or implied sexual requirements, the words or behavior with sexual meaning or gender discrimination of the officer in charge for the exchange of labor contract formation, existence, alteration or distribution, allocation, remuneration, performance appraisal, promotion, reduction, reward and punishment.

Examples of sexual harassment include the following:

- a. Attitudes and behaviors of insult, contempt or discrimination arising from gender differences.
- b. Inappropriate, uncomfortable, offensive language, body touching of a sexual nature or sexual requirements.
- c. To demand sexual or sexuality-related behavior by threat or punishment.
- d. Compulsive sexual intercourse and sexual assault.
- e. Demonstrating pictures and text that have sexual connotations or sexual temptations.

(2) The application of the Sexual Harassment Prevention Act:

Excluding sexual assault crimes, the so-called sexual harassment in the Guidelines refers to the sexual statements or sexual behavior violating another person's wishes and also to the following situations:

- a. If a person's obedience to or rejection of another's sexual advances become a condition of obtaining, losing or reducing their rights and interests in work, education, training, services, plans or activities.
- b. If texts, pictures, voices, images or other objects are used to inundate or intimidate; or if discriminatory language and behavior, and insults or other methods are adopted. – For such reasons, the other's person's dignity is impaired. Or if another person feels frightened, feels dislike and hostility or feels offended; or if another persons' work, education, training, services, plans, activities or other normal habits are improperly influenced.

3. In accordance with the regulations provided in the Act of Gender Equality in Employment or the Sexual Harassment Prevention Act, the Center regulates the guidelines for sexual harassment prevention and complaints. These Disposal Directions are applicable along with other relevant laws and regulations.

4. The Center should strengthen its advocacy of sexual harassment prevention measurements and complaint channel to the staff as follows:

- (1) Encourage employees, by means of public holidays or financial subsidies, to participate in yearly organized education and training related to sexual harassment and prevention as well as to strengthen the concept of gender equality among employees, respect the gender characteristics and sexual orientation of employees and service workers to establish a safe and friendly work and service environment .
- (2) If any sexual harassment or suspected incident occurs, the prevention and control measurements shall be reviewed and improved.
- (3) Publicly announce the treatment measurements for sexual harassment prevention and complaints channels in distinct places such as the Center's site, bulletin boards and workplace to enhance the effectiveness of prevention and treatment.
