The executive rules of Paragraph 1 shall be approved by the school's council board. Private schools must apply for approval from the board of trustees of the school's judicial person. For revisions and amendments, approval must be obtained from the school competent authorities.

The regulations governing the procedures, deadlines, required documents or information, review items, permit conditions, cease and desist, and other procedural accorded matters related to the approval provided in the Paragraph 1 shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 6

Schools with approval for fundraising under the preceding article shall open an education savings account within 10 days since the approved date at a public financial institution (for public schools) with treasury agency window or at the post office or other financial institution (for private schools). School shall submit particulars related to the establishment of the account to the competent authority for reference within 7 days since the account opened date.

Education savings account names shall include the full title of the schools and the words education savings account. The account name of designated education savings accounts for national public schools shall be in accordance with the regulations for establishing the names of treasury authority-specified accounts.

School education savings accounts shall be specified accounts, and the revenue and expenditures shall be recorded. The accounting and cashier of the account shall be implemented under individual school's accounting and cashier rules.

Article 7

A competent authority of municipal and county (city) governments which issued permissions under Article 5 shall report to the Ministry of Education within 7 days since the next day following the approval date for reference.

A competent authority shall publicize the following information on its websites: the name of school that is permitted to engage in fundraising for the purpose of establishing education savings accounts, the account name, permission date and permission document number.

Article 8

After an education savings account is opened and a report to the competent authorities for reference is submitted under Paragraph 1, Article 6, schools may begin the fundraising publicly.

Schools shall establish a designated education savings account management team, which shall be in charge of maintaining and operating the revenue and expenditures of the account.

The management team in the preceding paragraph shall consist of 5 to 11 members, including a convener who shall be the school principal. The remaining membership shall be comprised of: parent association representatives, honorable members of the community, expertise, scholars, and school faculty or staff (appointed or assigned). The number of external (non-school affiliated) representatives shall not be less than one-third of the total number of members.

The tasks of the said management team are as follows:

1. Identify financially disadvantaged students.
2. Review the use in subsidy cases.
3. Review the revenue and expenditures, maintenance and use of the funds.
4. Review the liquidation procedures following the closure of an education savings account.
5. Other fundraising-related and management affairs.

Revenue can be transferred from one school's education savings account to the other to support education-related expenses of other financially disadvantaged students after being reviewed and approved by the management task team prescribed in the preceding paragraph, as well as approved by the competent authorities.

The regulations governing the means for forming and operating the education savings account management team shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 9

If the donor has destined students or purpose of use, schools shall use the money according to the donator wishes.

If the destined individual in the preceding paragraph graduates and a surplus remains from the original donation, the school shall report the surplus to the competent authorities. After approval, the surplus shall be used to support other financially disadvantaged students according to the objectives of this Act. However, if a donor has specified that the money must be used for the original destined individual, the money shall be transferred to other school designated education savings accounts to execute continuously.

Article 10

Schools shall provide all donors with a written receipt upon receiving donations of fundraising money and shall state the fundraising approval number, the name of the donor, the donation amount, and the donation date on the receipt. If a specific individual is destined to receive the donation, or if the donation is for a specific use, as prescribed in Paragraph 2 of Article 4, the beneficiary of the donation and/or its purpose shall be also stated.

Article 11

Schools shall publicize the revenues and expenditures of designated education savings accounts on the website designated by the Ministry of Education for public proclamation and credit reference monthly. Schools shall report the revenue, expenditures, and balance of designated education savings accounts of the previous year to competent authorities prior to January 31 of each year for reference. The reports shall be publicized on the website designated by the Ministry of Education for public proclamation and public credit reference.
