Article 26

The appointment of teachers of all levels of school shall be handled in accordance with the principles of fairness, justness and openness. The procedures are as follows:

1. Teachers of the senior high schools and lower levels may be allocated in accordance with the decrees. Otherwise, the principals thereof may report the publicly selected qualified candidates to the Teachers Review Committee for the screening. The teachers shall be appointed after the consent of the Committee.

2. For the appointment of junior college teachers, the department directors shall report the candidates to the Teachers Review Committee for the screening after the departmental meetings and, after the consent of the Committee, the candidates shall be reported to the principals for the appointment.

3. For the appointment of teachers of each department and graduate school of universities and independent colleges, schools shall put want ads on the media or academic journals and the chairpersons of the departments or graduate schools shall propose the applicants to the Teachers Review Committees of the department, college and school for the ratification. After the consent of the Committees, the candidates shall be reported to the principals for the appointment.

The regulations concerning the establishment of Teachers Review Committee specified in the preceding paragraph shall be enacted by the Ministry of Education; however, those of the junior colleges and higher levels shall be prescribed in accordance with the regulations governing the school organization.

Article 27

Junior high and elementary school principals shall be selected openly from the qualified candidates except those who hold the current positions in accordance with the decrees. The same shall be applied to high school teachers except the allocated ones.

Article 28

The school staff shall be appointed by the principals from the qualified candidates and reported to the government agencies in charge of education administration for a later check. However, the appointment of the budgeting, accounting, and statistics staff and the human resources staff shall be handled in accordance with the respective related laws.

Article 29

The professionals in social education institutions and researchers in academic research institutions shall be nominated by the respective chairperson and reported to the government agencies for the ratification and appointment.

Article 30

School teachers shall apply for the screening of qualifications after the appointment in accordance with the following procedures:

1. The screening cases of the junior high and elementary school teachers shall be submitted to the schools they serve and later reported to the county (city) governments so as to forward to the education division of the provincial government for the screening.
2. The screening cases of the senior high school teachers shall be submitted to the schools they serve and later forwarded to the education division of the provincial government for the screening.
3. The screening cases of the public and private high school and elementary school teachers under the jurisdiction of the municipality shall be submitted to the schools they serve and later forwarded to the municipal education bureaus for the screening.
4. The screening cases of the high school and elementary school teachers subordinate to normal universities, normal colleges and education departments or colleges of universities and public high school teachers shall be submitted to the schools they serve and later forwarded to the provincial education division (city education bureaus) under whose jurisdiction the school belongs to for the screening.
5. The screening cases of the teachers of junior colleges and higher levels shall be submitted to the schools they serve and later transferred to the Ministry of Education for the screening. The regulations governing the screening of teacher qualifications and registration shall be enacted by the Ministry of Education.

Article 30-1

The screening cases of the incumbent staff who have received the certificates of lecturers or assistant professors before the enforcement of the amended Act and have continued teaching without suspension shall be directly submitted for the screening in accordance with the former promotion regulations without the constraints of Article 29 of University Act. The same may apply to the professionals in social education institutions and researchers of the academic research institutions who have been appointed in accordance with the Act.

Chapter 4 Restrictions on the Appointment

Article 31

A person to whom any one of the following situations pertains may not be employed as an educator; if such a person has already been appointed the matter shall be reported to the competent education administrative authority and if it ratifies the decision, the person shall be dismissed or discharged from their post:

1. Having been convicted of a crime threatening civil security domestically or from abroad, or a warrant having been issued for their arrest for such a crime with the case still pending.
2. Having been found guilty and convicted or currently subject to an arrest warrant for a case that is still pending for corruption or negligence while employed in civil service.
3. Having been found guilty and convicted of a breach of Article 2, Paragraph 1 of the Sexual Assault Crime Prevention Act

4. Having been dismissed from employment in accordance with the law, or currently still undergoing a period of suspension from employment as a disciplinary measure, or having been suspended from employment because of some incident, with the case not yet resolved.
5. Having been deprived of civil rights and their rights having not yet been reinstated.
6. Having been made subject to a guardianship or assistance order which has not yet been revoked.
7. Having been certified by a qualified physician as having a mental disorder and having not yet recovered from it.
8. Having had the Gender Equity Education Committee of the educational institution or another appropriate committee set up in accordance with the law investigate and verify their having committed a sexual assault.
9. Having being the Gender Equity Education Committee of the educational institution or another appropriate committee set up in accordance with the law investigate and verify their having committed sexual harassment or sexual bullying, of a serious nature.
10. Upon becoming aware of a suspected sexual assault incident on the campus where the educator is employed, failing to report the matter in accordance with the provisions of the Gender Equity Education Act, thereby leading to a subsequent sexual assault on campus; or forging, altering, destroying, or concealing evidence of any such assault committed by any other person, where any such failure to report or forging, altering, destroying, or concealing of evidence has been investigated and verified by the authorities concerned.
11. Forging, altering, or destroying evidence of any other person committing any criminal offence involving narcotics or hazardous drug on campus, where the matter has been investigated and verified by the authorities concerned.
12. Inflicting corporal punishment on or bullying one or more students, causing severe physical or mental injury.
13. Having behaved in breach of any law, where the matter has been investigated and verified by the authorities concerned.

But those who have held the positions before the principals succession, if taking charge of fiscal positions, shall be adjusted from their incumbent positions or work; if the positions they hold are fixed-termed, they may continue working until the completion of the term.

Article 33

Those who fail to work due to chronic illness or have served civil service but fail to hand over the duties thereof may not be appointed as educators. Those who reach the retirement age may not be appointed as full-time educators.

Article 34

Full-time educators may not work part-time outside of the schools or hold concurrent jobs except there shall be provisions of other laws.

Article 34-1

Unless specified otherwise in the laws, full-time educators shall have their position retained without pay for taking care of their newborns, parents, advanced studies, temporary transfer, or others as long as application is approved by the school, institution, or designated education authority.

Reasons, approval process, duration, frequency, reinstatement, and other requirements concerning the application for retention of position without pay as mentioned in the preceding paragraph are to be established by the Ministry of Education.

Article 35

The provisions in Article 32 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the head of social education institutions and academic research institutions.

Chapter 5 The Term of Office

Article 36

Principals of schools at all levels work by terms. The regulations concerning the terms shall be enacted by the Ministry of Education. When the principals who have held a Teacher' s Certificate have served their terms, they shall be exempt from deliberations by the Teacher Evaluation Committee for resuming the position of teacher according to the following:

1. Presidents of junior colleges and above shall resume their teaching positions at the original institutions.
2. Principals of senior high schools and lower-level schools shall follow respective laws/regulations governing the schools.

Article 37

The first and second term of teachers of junior colleges and higher levels shall be one year, but the later renewed terms shall be two years.

The first term of high school teachers shall be one year, but the later renewed terms shall be two years.

Article 38

Schools may not dismiss teachers whose terms of appointment are still within the validity on the condition that the teachers thereof have not violated the contract of appointment or have not been approved dismissed by the government agencies in charge of education administration due to any serious incidents.

Teachers may not resign when the term of appointment thereof is still within validity unless due to legitimate reasons.
