Article 9	The qualification accreditation of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels can be divided into two phases: the first review and the second review. The former is done by respective schools whereas the latter is done by the Ministry of Education. When the teacher passes the first review, the school shall report this to the Ministry of Education for the second review. A teacher certificate shall be conferred on the teacher that passes the second review. If necessary, the Ministry of Education can authorize the school to conduct the second review and then confer a teacher certificate on the teacher that passes it.

Article 10 The regulations governing the qualification accreditation of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Chapter III Employment

Article 11 The employment of teachers at high schools and lower levels can be divided into initial employment, renewed employment, and tenured employment. Other than those placed in accordance with Paragraph 2 of Article 13 or Article 20 of the Teacher Education Law, teachers shall be employed by the principal after the assessment and approval of the Teachers' Review Committee.

The Teachers' Review Committee referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include representatives from the teaching staff, school administration, and one representative from the Parents' Association. Of that group, the teachers' representatives that are not part of the administration or the board shall not number less than half of the total; the regulations governing the establishment of the committee shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education. The appointment of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels shall be made in accordance with the University Law and Junior College Law respectively.

Article 12 The initial employment of teachers at high schools and lower levels is applicable only to those with teaching intern certificates; renewed employment is applicable only to those with teacher certificates. If the teaching intern doesn't obtain a teacher certificate upon the expiration of the initial employment, the employment can be extended after the assessment and approval of the Teachers' Review Committee, which can be done only once.

Article 13 The first and second term of teachers at high schools and lower levels shall be one year, and renewed terms shall be two years. After the third renewed term with excellent teaching performance and with the assessment and approval of two-thirds of the entire Teachers' Review Committee, the teacher can obtain tenured employment. The duration of employment shall be jointly set forth by the Teachers' Review Committee of respective schools.

Article 14 After being employed, a teacher may not be dismissed, suspended, or denied renewed employment unless one of the following situations pertains:

The case of a teacher to whom any of the circumstances set out in Subparagraphs 12 to 14 of the preceding paragraph pertain shall be dealt with by a Teachers' Review Committee with at least two-thirds of its members present and at least two-thirds of the attending members being in agreement with its decision. With the exception of any case where the circumstances constitute a serious offence, if the circumstances set out in Subparagraph 13 pertain, and the Teachers' Review Committee has decided to dismiss the teacher or not renew their employment, the Teachers' Review Committee shall determine a period of between one to four years, based on the nature of the offence, during which that person may not be re-employed as a teacher, and the details shall be reported to the competent education administrative authority.

A teacher to whom any of the circumstances set out in Subparagraphs 1 to 12 of Paragraph 1 or in the last part of the preceding paragraph pertain may not be re-employed as a teacher. Except when any of the provisions for handling the matter listed below apply, a teacher already employed shall be reported to the competent educational administrative authority to review the matter and approve the disciplinary measure, and then be dismissed, suspended, or not have their employment renewed.

1. Those to whom the circumstances set out in Subparagraph 7 pertain shall be retired or laid off in accordance with the regulations.
2. Those to whom the circumstances set out in Subparagraph 8 and Subparagraph 9 pertain shall be dealt with in accordance with the regulations in Paragraph 4.
3. Those to whom the circumstances set out in Subparagraph 3, Subparagraph 10 or Subparagraph 11 pertain shall be dismissed after their case has been reported to the competent educational administrative authority to review, and their dismissal has been approved.

Within one month of becoming aware of a teacher being involved in the circumstances set out in Subparagraph 8 or Subparagraph 9 of Paragraph 1, after the Teachers' Review Committee has reviewed the matter and given approval, the employing school shall suspend that teacher's employment, and wait for the results of an investigation. If the investigation verifies that the circumstances did occur, the employing school shall dismiss the teacher after reporting the details to the competent educational administrative authority and received its ratification.

To avoid employing any teacher to whom the circumstances set out in Subparagraphs 1 to 12 of Paragraph 1 or the last part of Paragraph 2, pertain, the competent educational administrative authority at each level and schools at all levels shall comply with the regulations governing reporting, the collection of information, and investigation. The regulations governing the reporting, collection information, investigation, and other mandatory requirements shall be established by the Ministry of Education.

With the exception of anyone who has committed a sexual assault; sexual harassment, or sexual bullying, which constitute a severe breach of the law severe; or who have caused severe physical or mental injury to student(s) as a result of corporal punishment or bullying, any teacher who before the Amendment to the Teachers' Act took effect on June 27th, 2013, was investigated and verified by the authorities concerned to have impaired their professional dignity and status as a teacher by behaving inappropriately, and was therefore dismissed or did not have their appointment renewed, may be re-employed as a teacher after at least four years from the date of effect of their dismissal or the non-renewal.

Article 14-1 When the Teachers' Review Committee of the school reaches an agreement upon dismissal, suspension, or non-renewal employment of a teacher in accordance with Article 14, the school shall report to the competent educational authorities for approval within 10 days of the agreement, and also notify the party in writing, stating its reasons. Before the competent educational authorities approve the dismissal, suspension, or non-renewal employment of the teacher, when the current employment expires, the school shall continue to employ the teacher temporarily.

Article 14-2 During the suspension of the teacher, the school shall reserve the position until the reasons for suspension are concluded, and shall continue to employ the teacher under the agreement of the Teachers' Review Committee of the school.

When a teacher is suspended in accordance with the law, and the employment expires before the reasons for suspension are concluded, the Teachers' Review Committee of the school shall investigate in accordance with regulations to see if continuing employment is appropriate.

Article 14-3 A teacher suspended in accordance with Article 14 shall be given half of the base salary (seniority salary) during the period of suspension; when the teacher is once more employed after the reasons for suspension have been concluded, the difference in base salaries (seniority salaries) shall become retroactive. However, if a teacher is under the following situations, his/her salary during the period of suspension shall not be given in accordance with this Article:

1. When a teacher is under imprisonment or detention, or is fined, but is paid during imprisonment or detention instead.
2. When a teacher is in situations referred to Paragraph 4 of Article 14, then s/he shall not be given half of the base salary (seniority salary) during the period of suspension, when a teacher is again employed after the reasons for suspension have been concluded, the difference in base salaries (seniority salaries) shall become retroactive.

Article 15	Due to the course adjustment of departments, graduate institutes, subjects, and divisions, or the class reduction, suspension of operations, or dissolution of schools, the school or the authorized educational authorities shall first help transfer those qualified teachers who would like to continue teaching or have other suitable work; those who are incompetent for their current positions or are already unemployed and have no other suitable work to transfer, or proved by public hospitals to be physically too weak to handle their work shall be reported to the authorized educational authorities and laid off after approval.
Article 15-1	Teachers who are first helped to transfer by schools or competent educational authorities in accordance with the preceding Article may not be employed if found in any of the situations mentioned in the subparagraphs of Paragraph 1 of Article 14 by the Teachers' Review Committee of the school. Teachers transferred by competent educational authorities in accordance with the regulations of the National Education Law can also apply to the regulation of the preceding paragraph.
