Any disciplinary measure listed in Paragraph 2 shall be implemented by the school or competent authority that imposes it, and when doing so, the school or competent authority shall take all necessary measures to ensure the offender's full cooperation and compliance.

Article 26

During the investigation of a case of sexual assault, sexual harassment, or sexual bullying on campus, the school or competent authority may make public a description of pertinent matters, handling methods, and principles where necessary. After the case has been closed and upon the approval of the victim or his or her guardian, the school or competent authority may also make public whether the case is established, the type of the case, and handling method of the case. Party names and other information that may lead to their identification shall not be revealed.

Article 27

The school or competent authority shall establish a database on incidents of sexual assault, sexual harassment, or sexual bullying on campus, as well as profiles of offenders.

If the offender is a student and transfers to another school for studies, the former competent authority and the school where the offender originally studied shall, in such cases as they consider there to be a need for follow-up counseling, notify the new school where the offender studies within one month of the date of knowing such transfer.

If the offender is not a student and transfers to another school for employment, the former competent authority and the school where the offender was originally employed shall provide follow-up counseling, and notify the new school where the offender is employed within one month of the date of knowing such transfer.

The notified school described in the previous two Paragraphs shall keep track of the offender and provide counseling where necessary. The school shall not reveal the offender's name or other information that may lead to his or her identification without legitimate reason.

The establishment, means of retention, duration of retention, destruction, and use of the database mentioned in Paragraph 1, and the school notification and other pertinent matters mentioned in Paragraphs 2 and 3, shall be prescribed in accordance with the principles of prevention prescribed in Article 20, Paragraph 1.

Article 27-1

If an investigation conducted by the gender equity education committee of an educational institution or by an appropriate committee set up in accordance with the law confirms that any of the circumstances listed below apply to an educator that the educational institution has appointed or employed, or to some other staff member with whom the educational institution has entered a contract or whose services it has engaged, the educational institution shall dismiss the person, revoke their appointment, terminate the contractual relationship, or terminate the service relationship, as applicable:

1. The person has committed sexual assault, or committed sexual harassment or sexual bullying of a serious nature.
2. The person has committed sexual harassment or sexual bullying not of a serious nature, but the educational institution determines it necessary to dismiss the person, revoke their appointment, terminate the contractual relationship, or terminate the service relationship, as applicable, and after examining and considering the circumstances of the case, shall formally decide on a period of between one and four years during which time, the educational institution is not permitted to appoint, employ, enter into a contract with, or engage the services of that person.

A person involved in any circumstances referred to in Subparagraph 1 of the previous paragraph apply, any educational institution at any level is not permitted to appoint, employ, enter into a contract with, or engage the services of that person. If such a person has already been appointed, employed, entered into a contract with, or had their services engaged, the educational institution shall revoke the appointment, discharge the person from employment, terminate the contractual relationship, or terminate the service relationship, as applicable. The same shall apply in the case of a person involved in any circumstances described in Subparagraph 2 of the previous paragraph and a period of between one and four years has been formally decided on, during which time an educational institution is not permitted to employ, appoint, enter into a contract with, or engage the services of that person.

If the gender equity education committee of an educational institution has investigated and verified that a personnel member to whom the dismissal from employment, revocation of appointment, or termination of a contractual or service relationship referred to in the provisions of Paragraph 1 do not apply has committed sexual assault, or committed sexual harassment, or sexual bullying, or acted in violation of the Child and Youth Sexual Transaction Prevention Act or the Child and Youth Sexual Exploitation Prevention Act, of a serious nature, then that person is not permitted to be employed, appointed, entered into a contract with, or have their services engaged. The same shall apply if the gender equity education committee of an educational institution has investigated and verified sexual harassment, or sexual bullying, or violation of the Child and Youth Sexual Transaction Prevention Act or the Child and Youth Sexual Exploitation Prevention Act, that was not of a serious nature was committed and has formally decided on a period of between one and four years, during which time an educational institution is not permitted to employ, appoint, enter into a contract with, or engage the services of that person.

The competent authorities and educational institutions at all levels shall undertake reporting, and collection and checking of information regarding any persons to whom any of the circumstances referred to in the previous three paragraphs apply.

Before appointing or employing any educator, or entering a contract with or engaging any other staff member, an educational institution shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Sexual Assault Crime Prevention Act, check whether or not the candidate has any record of criminal sexual assault, and in accordance with the regulations referred to in Paragraph 7, shall check whether the candidate has ever committed any sexual assault, sexual harassment, or sexual bullying, or acted in violation of the Child and Youth Sexual Transaction Prevention Act or the Child and Youth Sexual Exploitation Prevention Act. Such checks shall be undertaken on a regular basis of persons already employed, appointed, entered into a contract with, or whose services are being engaged.

When assisting educational institutions to undertake the checking referred to in the preceding paragraph, the competent authorities at each level may use the database of persons who have been subject to an administrative penalty that was compiled by the central competent social welfare authority, in accordance with the provisions of the Child and Youth Sexual Exploitation Prevention Act, or Article 20 of the Sexual Harassment Prevention Act.

The regulations governing the reporting, and the collection, checking, handling, and use of information, and other related matters referred to in the previous three paragraphs shall be prescribed by the central competent authority.

The revocation of appointment, suspension of appointment, discharge from employment, permanent dismissal from employment, suspension of employment, or discharge from military service of personnel referred to in Paragraphs 1 to 3 to whom the Teachers' Act, the Act Governing the Appointment of Educators, relevant laws governing civil servants, or relevant laws governing military personnel are applicable shall be conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of those laws, and the provisions of Paragraph 4 and of subsequent paragraphs up to the immediately previous paragraph. In cases where dismissal, revocation of appointment, permanent dismissal from employment, or discharge from military service has not occurred, the person shall be transferred away from their current position at the educational institution.

For any personnel member not referred to in the previous paragraph who has been involved in any of the circumstances referred to in Paragraph 1 or Paragraph 3, during the investigation period the educational institution or the competent authority shall order the person to be temporarily suspended from employment following a resolution by the gender equity education committee; if the reason(s) for the temporary suspension of employment ceases to exist and the person is reinstated, any salary that they were not paid during the suspension period shall be paid to the person in arrears in accordance with the provisions of relevant regulations.

Article 28

When the school violates regulations in this Act, the victim or his or her guardian may apply for an investigation to the competent authority supervising the school.

The victim of an incident of sexual assault, sexual harassment, or sexual bullying on campus or his or her guardian may apply for an investigation in writing to the offender's school. If the offender is the head of the school, the investigation application shall be made to the competent authority supervising the school.

Anyone with the knowledge of the events mentioned in the preceding two paragraphs may report them to the school or competent authority according to prescribed procedures.

Article 29

After receiving an application for investigation or an offense report, the school or competent authority shall send a written notification to the applicant or offense-reporter within twenty days to notify him or her whether the application is accepted.

The school or competent authority shall reject the application or offense report if one of the followings applies:

1. Events not prescribed in the regulations of this Act.
2. Applicants or offense-reporters who do not provide their real names.
3. A case that has already been handled and closed.

The notification in the preceding paragraph shall explain the reason of its rejection in writing.

If the applicant or offense-reporter does not receive a notification of application acceptance or rejection within the time frame mentioned in the first paragraph may reapply in writing to the school or competent authority within twenty days from the date following the notification is received.

Article 30

After receiving an application or a report of an offense referred to in Paragraph 1 of the previous article, an educational institution or competent authority shall delegate the matter to its gender equity education committee within three days to handle an investigation, except when the circumstances referred to in Paragraph 2 of the previous article apply.

When the gender equity education committee of an educational institution or competent authority is handling an incident referred to in the previous paragraph, it may set up an investigation team to investigate the matter; when necessary, some or all appointed members of the investigation team may be persons from outside the educational institution or competent authority. The investigation teams in which all appointed members are from outside the educational institution or competent authority and the completed investigation reports that occurred before the amendments to this Act takes effect on December 30, 2018, were legal.

Members of the investigation team shall have an awareness of gender equity, and the number of female members is not permitted to be fewer than half of the total number of members. At least one-third of any investigation team at the educational institution level and at least one half of any investigation team at the competent authority level shall be experts or scholars with professional expertise in the investigation of incidents of sexual assault, sexual harassment, or sexual bullying. When the parties involved belong to different educational institutions each investigation team shall also include one or more representatives of the educational institution with which the victim is affiliated.

When a gender equity education committee or an investigation team carries out an investigation in accordance with the provisions of this Act the perpetrator, the applicant, and any person(s) who or unit(s) which have been asked to assist in the investigation shall cooperate and provide pertinent information.

Applicable provisions of the Administrative Procedure Law regarding jurisdiction, referral of cases, recusal, service of notifications, and amendments shall be applied in this Act or apply, mutatis mutandis. The handling of the investigation of a case by a gender equity education committee will not be affected by any judicial procedures regarding the same case.

When investigating and handling a case, the gender equity education committee shall take into account the difference in power between the two parties.

Article 31

The Gender Equity Education Committee of the school or competent authority shall complete its investigation of a case within two months from the date the application or offense report is accepted. The investigation may be extended at most twice if necessary, and each extension may not exceed one-month's time. The applicant, offense-reporter and offender shall be notified of the extension.

After the investigation is complete, the Gender Equity Education Committee shall submit a written report to its school or competent authority regarding the investigation and suggestions for handling.

After receiving the aforesaid investigation report, the school or competent authority shall put forth a disposition or turn it over to the pertinent authority for a decision within two months according to this Act or pertinent laws or regulations. The school or competent authority shall notify in writing the applicant, offense-reporter and offender of its handling conclusion, facts established and grounds.

Before reaching the aforesaid conclusion, the school or competent authority may request representative(s) of its Gender Equity Education Committee to attend the meeting for clarification.

Article 32

If not agreeing with the conclusion referred to the third paragraph of the preceding Article, the applicant and offender may apply in writing with grounds for reapplication within twenty days from the date following the date of receipt of the written notification. .

The aforesaid reapplication may be made only once.

The school or competent authority may request its Gender Equity Education Committee to reinvestigate the case under the conditions that major flaws in the investigation procedure, or new facts or evidences that would affect the investigation are discovered.

Article 33

After receiving request for reinvestigation from the school or competent authority, the Gender Equity Education Committee shall organize a new investigation team, whose investigation and handling procedures shall follow pertinent regulations prescribed by this Act.

Article 34

If not satisfied with the disposition of the reapplication, the applicant or offender may petition for relief according to the following regulations within thirty days from the date following the date of receipt of the written notification.:

1. Public and private school principals and teachers: regulations prescribed by the Teacher's Act shall apply.
2. Civil service employees in public schools who are hired according to the Civil Service Employment Act and employees hired before the effective date (May 3rd, 1985) of the Statute for Appointment of Educational Personnel: regulations prescribed by the Civil Servant Protection Act shall apply.
3. Private school staff: regulations prescribed by the Gender Equality in Employment Act shall apply.
4. Public and private school workers: regulations prescribed by the Gender Equality in Employment Act shall apply.
