The original school shall preannounce the termination of labor agreement in accordance with the laws with the laborers who do not wish to transfer, and pay for the severance or retirement in accordance with applicable laws. The helpers hired by the original schools in accordance with the existing Key Points for Managing Helpers (previously known as the Rules Governing General Affairs) (including technicians and drivers; herein after referred to as original school helpers) who transfer to the consignee on the consignment date and shall apply for retirement or departure on the consignment date. After the consignment date, the original school helpers shall be otherwise governed by the personnel policies adopted by the consigned schools.

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government shall provide job placement initiatives for the school helpers mentioned in the previous Paragraph who are not willing to transfer to the consignee, and the new employer organization (agency) shall recognize the work seniority already accumulated.

Article 15

The consignee may hire a person with specific expertise to assume the position of school principal according to the needs of school development and teaching features, while employment priority shall be given to an educator who qualifies as a school principal in accordance with the Act of Governing the Appointment of Educators.

Article 16

The consignee may hire persons with expertise in specific subject or discipline as teaching personnel according to the needs of school development and teaching features, while employment priority shall be given to the persons holding teacher certificates.

The regulations governing public school teachers shall be applicable to the rights and obligations, excluding compensation and benefits, of the teacher certificate holders who are not full-time teachers within organization system as mentioned in Paragraph 1 of Article 11, unless otherwise agreed upon in the agreement made among the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government, consignee, consigned schools, and the teachers, where more favorable personnel policies adopted by the consigned schools are available.

The following rules shall be applicable to the full-time teachers holding teacher certificate hired beyond organization system:

1. The regulations governing public school teachers shall be applicable to their rights and obligations, excluding compensation and benefits, unless otherwise agreed upon in the agreement made among the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government, consignee, and teachers, where more favorable personnel policies adopted by the consigned schools are available.
2. Their retirement, survivor's benefits, layoff, and insurance shall be governed by the personnel policies adopted by the consigned schools, and the regulations governing public school teachers do not apply in the matters hereto.

The consigned schools shall comply with the regulations governing recognition of work seniority accumulated by the teachers of the consigned schools prior to the promulgation of this Act regarding to their retirement, survivor' s benefits, firing, and insurance applications. The compensation and benefits for teaching personnel who do not hold teacher certificates shall be governed by the agreement made between the consignee and the said teaching personnel and the personnel policies adopted by the consigned schools, and the regulations governing public school teachers do not apply to their retirement, survivor' s benefits, layoff, and insurance. Their work seniority accumulated at equivalent position with good service record and with teacher certificate on teaching jobs at public schools may be included in the determination of salary tiers without exceeding the highest seniority-salary class allowed for the position currently held.

With consent from the current school employer and permission from the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government, teachers of other schools may be attached to consigned schools and assume teaching position within the organization system of the consigned schools but not to exceed 3 years. The consigned schools are responsible for their compensation and benefits. They shall return to their original schools upon the expiration of secondment, and the original schools shall keep their job vacancies.

The personnel as described hereto and are already on the jobs of general affairs, accounting, or personnel prior to the consignment agreement or the principal' s inauguration shall be re-assigned to other positions or jobs.

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government may order the consignee or the principal to relieve the personnel hired in violation to the rules mentioned in the previous Paragraph; the consignee' s or the principal' s failure to comply immediately shall be subject to be relieved directly by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government.

Chapter 4 Student Recruitment, Class Size, and Teaching Equipment

Article 20

When the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government and consignee determine school district zoning in their administrator' s agreement, the original school district of the original school shall be given priority consideration, and other school districts may be included without being limited by the school district zoning of the original school. If applicants outnumber total enrollment, the order of household registration dates or lucky draw may be adopted in determining priority for school admittance.

In responding to and considerations of community development, population change, traffic condition, and school environment, the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government may amend the consignment agreement and change the school district zoning mentioned in the previous Paragraph after a public hearing has been implemented.

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government shall assist the parents of students within the school district who refuse to enroll in the consigned school and help the students to transfer to other nearby schools and subsidize traffic expense at its discretion and needs. The schools receiving transfer students hereto shall provide life and learning guidance depending on practical needs.

Article 21

Each class size at consigned schools may not exceed the numbers stipulated in the regulations applicable to public schools. The regulations pertaining to teaching equipment applicable to public schools shall be applicable to the consigned schools, unless otherwise approved by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government.

Chapter 5 Evaluation, Reward, and Guidance

Article 22

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government shall assemble evaluation teams to conduct regular or non-regular evaluation and guidance on the consigned schools.

The evaluation mentioned in the previous Paragraph may be consigned to related academic institutes or groups. Criteria and method for evaluation shall be announced prior to the evaluation. Evaluation result shall be made public after the evaluation. During evaluation, parents may be invited to offer comments. Those rated top/excellent will be granted a reward. Written demand for rectification within a given deadline may be given to those fail to meet standard and a reassessment is to ensue. The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government may order another rectification with a given deadline to those fail to pass the re-assessment.

The measures for evaluation, reward, and guidance mentioned in the previous Paragraph shall be determined by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government.

Article 23

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government may give priority for continuation as consignment period approaches its expiration for those rated top/excellent in evaluation as mentioned in the previous Article.

Chapter 6 Agreement Renew, Take-over, Termination, and Expiration

Article 24

Consignees who wish to continue with the consignment after the expiration of consignment period shall submit school management performance, financial statement, school affair evaluation report, and future operation plan to the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government and apply for agreement renewal no later than one year prior to the expiration of consignment period.

Article 25

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government shall take over the consigned school and appoint an adequate substitute as acting principal until a new principal reports for duty if the consignee's application for renewal as mentioned in the previous Article being denied, or the consignee does not wish to renew, or the agreement is terminated in accordance with Article 26 or Paragraph 2 of Article 27. The regulations governing selection of public school principal do not apply to the appointment of acting principal.

Unless otherwise agreed in consignment agreement, in the situation mentioned in the previous Paragraph the consignee shall immediately transfer the property, operation right, student records, and school affair files of the consigned school to the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government.

The self-governance regulations stipulated by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government shall be applicable to the take-over mentioned in the previous two Paragraphs.

Article 26

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government may terminate the consignment agreement after submitting any of the following situations to the education review committee for approval:

1. The consignee or the consigned school engages in profit seeking or illegal activity;
2. The consignee or the consigned school is experiencing financial difficulty to the extent that the school is unable to function normally and the students' rights are damaged;
3. The consigned school has incurred an incident that puts the school operation and students' rights in great peril; or
4. The consigned school fails to pass the re-review mentioned in Article 22 and fails to make satisfactory rectification before the second deadline given by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government.

Article 27

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government terminating agreement before the expiration of the consignment period shall do so before on the end of the respective school year, unless otherwise one of the situations mentioned in the previous Article has incurred.

The consignee exercising the agreement or administrative regulations to terminate agreement due to poor operation should submit application to the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government at least 6 months prior to the end of the respective school year. The application will then be submitted to the education review committee for review. If approved, the agreement shall be terminated by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government.

Article 28

The competent authority of municipal, county, or city government shall provide assistance, with consideration of parents' opinions, to the students wishing to transfer out from the consigned school of which agreement is terminated or expired, and help the said students to transfer to nearby schools where vacant recruitment quota is available.

Article 29

The faculty and staff transferred to the consigned school, to which agreement renewal is not made between the consignee and the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government, in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 11 and teachers hired within organization table and to whom the regulations governing public school teachers may apply in accordance with Paragraph 2 of Article 16 shall remain employed by their respective original schools after the expiration of the consignment period, except for those who opt for departure or retirement.

The consignee shall be solely responsible for the employee other than the faculty and staff not opting for departure or retirement mentioned in the previous Paragraph.

Chapter 7 Penalty

Article 30

The consignee's or the principal's violation to Paragraph 1 of Article 19 shall be subject to a penalty fine of TWD 50,000 to 200,000 administered by the competent authority of municipal, county, or city government. Those violating the Act on Recusal of Public Servants Due to Conflicts of Interest at the same time shall be the first ones to be punished by the same Act.

Chapter 8 Miscellaneous

Article 31

The schools already consigned in accordance with the originally applicable laws prior to the promulgation of this Act may carry on with the original agreement until the expiration of the respective term, and this Act shall be applicable after the said expiration.

Article 32

The enforcement rules for this Act shall be determined by the central-level competent authority.

Article 33

The promulgation date of this Act shall be determined by the Executive Yuan.
