Chapter 4 Prevention and handling of sexual assault and sexual harassment on campus

Article 20 The central competent authority shall prescribe regulations to prevent and handle sexual assault or sexual harassment on campus. Such regulations shall contain campus safety plans, matters needing attention regarding instruction and interpersonal interaction on and off campus, and handling mechanisms, procedures, and relief for a case of sexual assault or sexual harassment on campus.

The school shall prescribe and promulgate prevention and handling regulations for the aforesaid regulations.

Article 21 In its handling of a campus sexual assault or sexual harassment case, the school or competent authority shall fulfill its report responsibility in accordance to pertinent laws and regulations. The school or competent authority shall turn over the case to its gender equity education committee for investigation and handling.

Article 22 In its handling of campus sexual assault or sexual harassment cases, the school or competent authority shall be objective, fair and professional, allowing both involved parties sufficient opportunities to make their statement and plea. Repeated interrogation shall be avoided. The party's and offense-reporter's name and other information that may lead to personal identification shall be kept confidential, except for investigation necessity or public safety concerns.

Article 23 In its handling of a campus sexual assault or sexual harassment case, the school or competent authority shall deploy necessary measures for the protection of the involved party's rights to education or work.

Article 24 In its handling a campus sexual assault or harassment case, the school or competent authority shall inform the victim or his or her guardian of his or her rights and relief, or refer him or her to related institutions. Psychological counseling, protection measures or other assistance shall be provided where necessary.

Article 25 Once a campus sexual assault and harassment case has been investigated and established, the school or competent authority shall impose punishment on the offender, or transfer him or her to other authority institutes for punishment in accordance to pertinent laws or regulations.

In its punishment of a sexual harassment offender, the school, competent authority or other authority institute may impose one or more of the followings on the offender:

1. Apologize to the victim upon the consent of the victim or his or her guardian;
2. Attend eight hours of courses on gender equity education;
3. Receive psychological counseling;
4. Prescribe other measures that comply with educational purposes.

In the case of the punishment in the first paragraph, the offender shall be allowed an opportunity to make a written statement when his or her status is changed.

Article 26 During the investigation of a campus sexual assault or sexual harassment case, the school or competent authority may make public a description of pertinent matters, handling methods, and principles where necessary. After the case has been closed and upon the approval of the victim or his or her guardian, the school or competent authority may also make public whether the case is established, the type of the case, and handling method of the case. Party names and other information that may lead to their identification shall not be revealed.

Article 27 The school or competent authority shall establish a database on cases of sexual assault or sexual harassment on campus, as well as profiles of offenders.

When the aforesaid offender transfers to another school for studies or employment, the former competent authority and the school where the offender worked or studied shall notify the new school where the offender works or studies within one month from the date of knowing such transfer. The notified school shall keep track of the offender and provide counseling where necessary. The school shall not reveal the offender's name or other information that may lead to his or her identification without legitimate reason.

Chapter 5 Application for investigation and relief

Article 28 When the school violates regulations in this Act, the victim or his or her guardian may apply for an investigation to the competent authority supervising the school. The victim of a campus sexual assault or sexual harassment or his or her guardian may apply for an investigation in writing to the offender's school. If the offender is the head of the school, the investigation application shall be made to the competent authority supervising the school.

Anyone with the knowledge of the events mentioned in the preceding two paragraphs may report them to the school or competent authority according to prescribed procedures.

Article 29 After receiving an application for investigation or an offense report, the school or competent authority shall send a written notification to the applicant or offense-reporter within twenty days to notify him or her whether the application is accepted.
