(5) Exhibition Scheduling :

Exhibition dates will be arranged by the Center accordingly. Generally speaking, each exhibition period is 2-3 weeks (including exhibition set-up/ Tear Down). The opening hours for exhibition are 9:00-17:00 daily. Mondays (excluding national holidays), Chinese Lunar New Year's Eve, 1st day of the 1st lunar month are closed and days-off announced by the government due to typhoons or other natural disasters.

(6) Obligations to Pay and Exhibit for Approved Applicants:

- A. Please hold the exhibition at the time period scheduled by the Center. The applicant shall sign a contract with the Center within the time period stipulated by the Center after receiving the notification. Exhibitions that can't be held at the scheduled time period can only be cancelled if the applicant notifies the Center four months prior to the exhibition period; only exhibitions that have special reasons for cancellation can be rescheduled if there are still available time slots in the same year; applicants who cancel late or without giving notification will be prohibited from applying for the exhibition rooms for the coming 3 years and any rental fees paid will not be refunded.
- B. 1 month prior to the exhibition period, the applicant needs to pay the rental fees according to "Venue and Facility Maintenance Fee Standards". The Center will cancel exhibitions for applicants who fail to pay or sign contracts on time. Applicants applying to use Exhibition Rooms 1 & 2 at the same time will enjoy a 20% discount on the rental fees. Applicants who are non-profit institutions such as competent authorities or schools may enjoy a 50% discount on the rental fees.
- C. The applicant is responsible for the printing of brief introductions, invitations, and albums of the exhibition, set-up/tear down, packaging, transport, insurance for the exhibited works, press conference, opening ceremony, ribbon-cutting ceremony and other relevant issues; the Center will post the exhibition information on its promotional channels; however, relevant written/graphic materials must be submitted to the Center two months prior to the exhibition.

(7) For remaining available time slots, the Center accepts last minute application which will be reviewed independently.

5. For exhibitions related to arts education, school field trips and charities organized by competent authorities (government organizations) and schools, a complete proposal for the exhibition and detailed information on its significance for arts education, field trips and charity promotion for this exhibition must be submitted to the Center. Rental fees may be reduced or waived after materials have been reviewed by the Center.
6. In addition to the regulations listed above, all organizers shall observe the following:
  - (1) All exhibited works must be framed properly; art pieces or 3D works without proper protection measures can't be put on display.
  - (2) Placement of floral baskets and items not related to the exhibition is not allowed at the exhibition room; nor can any commercial activities be conducted there.
  - (3) All exhibited works shall be removed from the exhibition room on the day of tear-down by 17:00 and retrieved by the organizer on the same day; the Center will not be responsible for any works left behind afterwards. The organizer is responsible for cleaning and restoring the venue to its original condition and will be held responsible for any damages.
  - (4) During the time of the exhibition, the exhibitor(s) (group) should hold a guided tour at the exhibition room at least once and have people train our staff so that they may introduce the pieces on display to visitors and promote arts education.
  - (5) Contents regarding all exhibited works, promotional materials, introductions or other info related to the exhibition must be approved by the Center beforehand.
  - (6) For the purpose of promoting arts education, the Center has the rights to photograph, film, play, promote, educate for non-profit use all exhibited works.
  - (7) The Center has the right to cancel any exhibitions if the exhibited contents breach the objectives of its establishment and administration directions for use of the exhibition rooms

- or attack others on purpose or are against morals; the exhibitor (group) will take the full responsibility for any infringements. The Center will not be held responsible for such acts.
- (8) After the schedule has been confirmed, the Center may ask applicants to reschedule their exhibitions due to unexpected circumstances.
- (9) If the organizer would like to hold any activities at the exhibition room, they shall check for proper lighting, sound equipment, facilities, equipment, quantities, locations of placement as well as how to get them during the Center's business hours beforehand. The Center does not accept any last minute requests for more equipment or other requests.
- (10) The Protection of the exhibited works and activities is the responsibility of the organizer; during the time the exhibition is held, if photography is prohibited, to maintain the service quality to visitors the organizer shall have staff at the scene to make sure it does not happen and attach warnings at visible locations before the exhibition opens to the public.
