- c. Photo copies of the certificate of the highest credential and transcript.
- d. Photo copies of the applications to the Mandarin Language Center.
- e. Other documents required by local embassies or missions.

7. Selection Procedure

1.) Short Term Research

- a. Universities or Ministry affiliates will accept applicants undertaking research through a application document review. Applicants who passed the first screening will be short-listed for a second screening by the MOE. Three to five scholars and experts in the related research areas will determine the final list based on potential, outstanding performances, the ability to execute plans (30%), language ability and the academic status of the research institute (30%), the completeness of the research project (including theme, structure, research methodology and analysis), availability, and the importance of the project to the applicant' s home country and to Taiwan (40%).
- b. Certain candidates will be offered reserved places for a scholarship after the official final list has been decided upon. If one of the successful candidates fails to come to Taiwan or withdraws from the program, the MOE will award this scholarship to the next qualified candidate on the reserved list and subsequently notify the new recipient, the related local research institute, and the local embassy or mission of this change.

2.) Huayu Enrichment Courses

- a. As stated in the announcement by embassies and missions. A document review or personal interview will be processed.
- b. When a successful candidate has waived his/ her right to a scholarship before arriving in Taiwan, his/ her position will be filled by the next candidate, that has been selected by a local embassy or mission. The deadline is December 31st.

8. Payment Procedure

1.) Short Term Research

Universities or Ministry affiliated research institutes where the recipients work should follow the schedule and the procedures below in order to apply for funding.

- a. Requests for a grant for each fiscal year should be submitted before January 5th of the day of same year. An allowance will be granted to the recipient on the tenth of every month. A list of MOE approved recipients and a receipt made out to the Ministry from the University requesting funding should be attached to the funding application document.
- b. Universities are to send photocopies of the recipients' invoice, ticket stub or purchase receipt, along with an official request letter to the MOE requesting reimbursement and verification as soon as the recipient has arrived in Taiwan. Universities should retain the original documents for later inspection.
- c. Upon completion of the research project, universities or MOE affiliated institutes are required to hand in an official document with the research report and a statement of income and expenditure to the MOE within a month of the completion date to close the account. However, research projects finished on December 31st should have this report and the verification sheets handed in no later than January 5th of the following year.
- d. The request, payment and verification of the grant should comply with the MOE subsidy and commission expense verification guidelines.

2.) Huayu Enrichment Courses

Mandarin Language Centers should follow the schedule and procedures stated below to request for reimbursement and verification from the MOE.

- a. This scholarship is granted twice a year. The first payment which is due on August 31st covers the period from September to December. The second payment which is due on January 5th covers the period from January to August. The verification process of granted funding should be completed before putting in another request. The recipient list and the receipt made out to the Ministry from the Mandarin Language Centers are mandatory for verification purposes. If unable to apply in time for the grant, the Mandarin Language Centers should pay for the monthly allowance in advance.
- b. Universities should verify grants twice a year in accordance with the MOE has been paid. The first verification is due on December 15th and covers the period from September to December. The second verification due on September 30th covers the period from January to August. A scholarship budget report and income and an expenditure statement signed by a designated accountant and the president (see Appendix 2) are required for verification. Unused funds should be returned. The original receipt should be retained by the universities for their audits.
- c. The request, payment and verification of the grant should comply with the Ministry' s subsidy and commission expense verification guidelines.

9. Terms and conditions

1.) Short Term Research

A. Recipient

- a. The recipient should undertake research at a registered university or at a MOE affiliate. During the research period, the recipient should actively participate in related academic events in Taiwan.
- b. The recipient is not allowed to leave Taiwan throughout the period to which the award relates without the permission of the university or a MOE affiliate. Even with permission of the university or a MOE affiliate, a prolonged stay of over ten days will lead to the suspension of the scholarship for an entire month.
- c. The recipient should hand in a research report including a thesis or a publication (see Appendix 3) to the university or a MOE affiliate before the end of the research period. The university or a MOE affiliate will then submit a report to the MOE.
- d. If the recipient arrived in Taiwan before the scheduled research period for purposes other than research and failed to obtain consent from the university or a MOE affiliate in advance, he/she will have to pay for the travel expenses to Taiwan.
- e. The recipient is prohibited to work for profit during the research period.
- f. The recipient is not allowed to accept any other awards or subsidies from other government agencies or academic institutions.
- g. The MOE does not provide housing or lab space.
- h. The recipient must be covered by accident and medical insurance, which is effective throughout his/her stay in Taiwan. The recipient should either fax or email the insurance policy one month prior to the arrival in Taiwan for review purposes. If the recipient is not insured, he/ she will not receive any research grant or airfare reimbursement during his/her stay.
- i. If the recipient acquires an alien resident certificate (ARC) during his/her stay and is qualified to join the National Health Insurance, he/she must join the insurance and pay the fees accordingly.
- j. If the recipient has forged any information or documentation, he/she will not only be disqualified from the program, but will also be required to return all the research funding and airfare previously received.

B. Universities and MOE Affiliates

- a. The MOE will not accept any application forms after July 31st. Applications and related documents submitted will not be returned to the sender.
- b. Universities and MOE affiliates agree to assist the recipients during their research period in Taiwan when needed and to help with the distribution and verification process of the grant according to the MOE schedule.
- c. Universities should withhold future allowance and request the recipient to pay back allowances and airfare already granted once they discovered that the recipient submitted false documents.

2.) Huayu Enrichment Courses

A. Recipient

- a. The recipient should study at a registered Mandarin Language Center approved by the MOE.
- b. Apply for admission according to the regulations of the center. Once admitted, the recipient should send a photocopy of the admission letter to the local embassy or mission before June 30th for confirmation. Recipients who do not send their documents before the deadline will be disqualified from the scholarship selection process.
- c. The recipient should undertake at least 15 hours of language courses each week. This does not include cultural visits, speeches, and other self-learning curriculum or activities.
- d. After the first semester (quarter), recipients of a maximum one year scholarship can request a one time only transfer to another Mandarin Language Center with permission of the original Mandarin Language Center. Recipients of the summer class, 3 months, 6 months or 9 months scholarship are not allowed to apply for a transfer.
- e. If the recipient concurrently accepts scholarships from other sources, he/ she will lose their placement in the scholarship program. He/she will also have to return the funds granted for those months he/she received multiple scholarships.
- f. The termination and cancellation of a scholarship based on regulations specified by each individual Mandarin Language Center. Mandarin Language Centers have the right to terminate or revoke a scholarship if the recipient's academic performance, moral character, or attendance record are not up to standards.
- g. Recipients of a six month or longer scholarship are obligated to join the National Health Insurance Program. Before joining, recipients should purchase student accident insurance and other relevant insurance. Insurance fees can be deducted by the Mandarin Language Centers from the monthly stipend before granting to recipients.
- h. Recipients of a nine month or longer scholarship have to participate in the Test of Proficiency-Huayu (TOP) (Basic Level) if they did not submit a TOP certificate or transcript when they applied. Failure to do so will cost the recipient a month's grant subsidy. Additionally, recipients should pay for TOP on their own. The latest date for submitting a valid TOP document is one month prior to the completion of their study term.

B. Mandarin Language Centers under Universities.

- a. Mandarin Language Centers should accept international students according to their own criteria and notify the applicants before June 15th.
- b. Mandarin Language Centers should arrange for recipients of a nine month or longer scholarship to participate in TOP. The recipients will have to pay for their own test fees.
- c. The Mandarin Language Centers that accept a transfer recipient student should contact the agencies appointed by the MOE, request for the rest of the scholarship grant, and notify the related embassy or mission, the recipient and the MOE. The Mandarin Language Center that authorized the transfer should return the unused funds to the MOE.
- d. Scholarships that have been revoked must follow regulations: the Mandarin Language Center should clearly state the reason and the effective date of the termination or suspension, the unused scholarship grant should be returned to the MOE. In the meantime, the center should notify the Bureau of Consular Affairs, National Immigration Agency, the embassy or mission concerned, the recipient affected, and the agencies appointed by the MOE. Scholarships will be revoked under one or more of the following circumstances:

- a.) Scholarships will be suspended for one month if recipients have missed 12 hours or more of their language courses within a single month.
- b.) Starting from the first semester (quarter), if the recipient fails to obtain the specified standard score by the university (an average of 80 points out of 100), his/her scholarship will be suspended for a month in the next semester (quarter). If the recipient fails to obtain the standard score (an average of 80 points out of 100) for two consecutive semesters(quarters), he/she will be disqualified from receiving the scholarship.
- c.) The recipient of a nine month or longer scholarship must hand in a Basic Level or above TOP certificate before the end of the scholarship term. If he/she fails to do so, the scholarship will be suspended for a month.
- d.) Any recipient missing a final achievement score for any semester (quarter) will be disqualified from receiving the scholarship with the exception of a serious illness or accident.
- e.) The recipient will not continue to receive the scholarship if he/she violates R.O.C. law.
- f.) The scholarship will be suspended or revoked if the recipient violates University or Mandarin Language Center regulations.
- e. After the recipient has completed the registration process, the Mandarin Language Center concerned should either hold an orientation or employ alternative methods to explain the suspension and cancellation related regulations to the recipient. It should also grant the monthly allowance on time and pay attention to any suspension or cancellation of the scholarship.
- f. Mandarin Language Centers should compile a list of recipients who did not register in time and send copies to the agency appointed by the MOE, the related embassies or missions, and the R.O.C. Immigration office.
- g. Mandarin Language Centers should allocate an office or staff to keep in contact with recipients, along with providing guidance and assistance at their school and for their daily life.
- h. Mandarin Language Centers should arrange at least 15 hours of language courses for the recipients per week. This does not include cultural visits, speeches, self learning curriculum or activities.

C. Embassies and Missions

- a. Embassies and missions should issue official Grant Certificates to recipients (see appendix 4). Recipients who are not admitted into universities or MOE affiliates will automatically become disqualified. Recipient information should be uploaded to the Taiwan Huayu Scholarship Information Platform. Paper copies of the recipient information (see appendix 5) should be send to the designated agency appointed by the MOE, the Bureau of Consular Affairs, the Immigration Office, the related Mandarin Language Centers, the MOE and the Department of Consular Affairs at embassies or missions.

- b. Embassies and missions should actively promote the scholarship program, offer information regarding the study in Taiwan program and help with the application and selection process. Embassies and missions should also help recipients with their visas and remind them to sign the Huayu enrichment scholarship written promise and understanding sheet (see Appendix 6).
- c. Hold orientations to explain related regulations, important notices for the Alien Residence Certificate (ARC), the ban on working for profit, along with additional information needed to live and study in Taiwan.
- d. Embassies and missions should stay in contact with recipients who have completed the project and returned to their home countries, for the purpose of holding experience sharing meetings and events, which allow the recipients to share what they have learned and how they felt about the project for future reference.

僑樞ホウ墾訖俟燻忌垆愨折妒緞ホ嫩苻撰 A Written Promise and Understanding of the Short Term Research Award (STRA)

I _____ affirm that, "I agree, upon receiving the Short Term Research Award in Taiwan, to fulfill the following promises:

1. To complete with accuracy all the necessary forms and applications for the Research Award. I declare that the information I have provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand and accept the condition that if I violated any of the terms associated with this Award, I will not only have to return all the grant monies disbursed to me, but will also be immediately disqualified from being an Award recipient.
2. It is my responsibility to execute the proposed research and upon its completion, will submit two copies of this research report, along with an electronic file to the research institute I worked at and to the Ministry of Education, respectively.
3. I further agree that the research results can be used by the Ministry of Education as a public reference. Additionally, I will make every attempt to publish research related papers at academic conferences or in publications, in Taiwan or from my home country.
4. I will submit the original copy of the airline boarding pass and ticket to the research institute I worked at and sign all the grant receipts provided to me by the institute where I received my grant payments.
5. I agree to abide by the laws of the Republic of China (Taiwan). Any infringement of the law or misconduct, such as working illegally, will result in my disqualification from receiving the Research Award.
6. I will cover all expenses that exceed the amount granted by the Research Award.
7. This written promise will be in Chinese and English and should any conflict arise, the Chinese text will prevail.

I acknowledge that I am responsible for accident and medical insurance coverage during my stay in Taiwan and that I should be insured before travelling to Taiwan. Before arrival in Taiwan, I should submit all related documents to the research institute where I will be conducting my research.—
