

Content

Title :	Teachers' Act
Date :	2011.12.28
Legislative :	1.Promulgated on August 09, 1995. 2. Amendment to Article 35 promulgated on July 19, 2000. 3.Amendment to Articles 3,11,17, addition of Articles 14-1~14-3,15-1,18-1, and 36-1 promulgated on January 15, 2003. 4.Addition of Article 35-1 promulgated on May 24, 2006. 5.Amendment to Articles 14,39 of the Teachers' Act per Presidential Decree No. Hua-Zong-Yi-Yi-Zi-09800292191 dated November 25, 2009 and taking effect on November 23, 2009. 6.Amendment to Articles 14-3 of the Teachers' Act per Presidential Decree No. Hua-Zong-Yi-Yi-Zi-09900317081 dated November 24, 2010. 7.Amendment to Articles 35-1 of the Teachers' Act per Presidential Decree No. Hua-Zong-Yi-Yi-Zi-10000291411 dated December 28, 2011.
Content :	Chapter I General Provisions Article 1 In order to elevate teachers' professional status, the law is hereby enacted to specify their rights and obligations and to safeguard their career and livelihood. Article 2 The certification and accreditation of teachers' qualifications, employment, rights and obligations, payment, further studies and research, retirement, consolation, separation, severance, insurance, teachers' organizations, appeals and litigations of teachers are governed by and interpreted in accordance with this law. Article 3 This law applies to full-time certified teachers with monthly salaries in public and registered private schools. Chapter II Qualification Certification and Accreditation Article 4 Teacher qualifications can be acquired through certification or accreditation: high schools and lower levels adopt the teacher certification system whereas junior colleges and higher levels adopt the teacher accreditation system. Article 5 The certification of teacher qualifications for high schools and lower levels can be divided into two phases: initial certification and secondary certification. Those who pass the initial certification will be given a teaching intern certificate; those who pass the secondary certification will be given a teacher certificate. Article 6 The initial certification is conducted by way of qualification verification. Those with one of the following qualifications can submit their diplomas to competent educational authorities in order to be intern teachers at high schools or lower levels: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Graduates of the undergraduate division of a teacher training college or normal university. 2. Graduates of colleges of education, departments of education, or graduate education institutes at universities or colleges who have completed the required education credits. 3. Graduates of colleges or universities who have completed education studies programs. 4. Graduates of colleges or universities or Ministry of Education approved foreign colleges or universities who have completed the course credits in education required by the Ministry of Education.

Article 7 The local authorized educational authorities can be authorized to implement the secondary teacher certification by establishing municipal or county secondary teacher certification committees. Those with the following qualifications can apply for the secondary teacher certification for the certified teacher status at high schools or lower levels:

1. Those who have obtained teaching intern certificates.
 2. Those who have undergone a one-year internship with passing grades.
- Certificates for qualified teachers shall be issued solely by the Ministry of Education.

Article 8 The regulations governing the qualification certification of teachers at high schools and lower levels shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 9 The qualification accreditation of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels can be divided into two phases: the first review and the second review. The former is done by respective schools whereas the latter is done by the Ministry of Education. When the teacher passes the first review, the school shall report this to the Ministry of Education for the second review. A teacher certificate shall be conferred on the teacher that passes the second review.

If necessary, the Ministry of Education can authorize the school to conduct the second review and then confer a teacher certificate on the teacher that passes it.

Article 10 The regulations governing the qualification accreditation of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Chapter III Employment

Article 11 The employment of teachers at high schools and lower levels can be divided into initial employment, renewed employment, and tenured employment. Other than those placed in accordance with Paragraph 2 of Article 13 or Article 20 of the Teacher Education Law, teachers shall be employed by the principal after the assessment and approval of the Teachers' Review Committee.

The Teachers' Review Committee referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include representatives from the teaching staff, school administration, and one representative from the Parents' Association. Of that group, the teachers' representatives that are not part of the administration or the board shall not number less than half of the total; the regulations governing the establishment of the committee shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

The appointment of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels shall be made in accordance with the University Law and Junior College Law respectively.

Article 12 The initial employment of teachers at high schools and lower levels is applicable only to those with teaching intern certificates; renewed employment is applicable only to those with teacher certificates. If the teaching intern doesn't obtain a teacher certificate upon the expiration of the initial employment, the employment can be extended after the assessment and approval of the Teachers' Review Committee, which can be done only once.

Article 13 The first and second term of teachers at high schools and lower levels shall be one year, and renewed terms shall be two years. After the third renewed term with excellent teaching performance and with the assessment and approval of two-thirds of the entire Teachers' Review Committee, the teacher can obtain tenured employment. The duration of employment shall be jointly set forth by the Teachers' Review Committee of respective schools.

Article 14 After employed, the teacher may not be dismissed, suspended, or denied a renewed employment unless involved in one of the following situations:

1. Being sentenced to a prison term for more than one year without probation.
2. Being convicted of corruption and malfeasance, or being issued a warrant of arrest, the case of which not settled yet during the term of civil service.
3. Being dismissed from the employment in accordance with the law, or undergoing the disciplinary action of suspension from employment with the penalty not yet terminated, or being suspended from employment due to the indictment with the case not yet cleared.
4. Being deprived of civil rights with the rights thereof having not yet been reinstated.
5. Being subject to the commencement of guardianship or assistantship and not having yet revoked those orders.
6. Being verified by the authorities concerned to have behaved inappropriately and therefore impaired the teacher's morals and dignity.
7. Being proved to have a mental disorder by a qualified physician.
8. Not fulfilling a teacher's duties or being incompetent in teaching with concrete facts or severe violation of the employment contract.
9. Being verified by the Committee for Gender Equity Education of the school as having committed sexual assaults.

Whether to dismiss teachers in either of the situations mentioned in Subparagraphs 6 or 8 of the preceding paragraph, shall be decided only when over two-thirds of the Teachers' Review Committee members are present and over half of the attending members agree.

Teachers in the situations referred to in Subparagraphs 1 to 7 and Subparagraph 9 of Paragraph 1 can not be employed as teachers. Those already employed shall be reported to the competent educational authorities for dismissal, suspension, or non-renewal of employment upon approval. However, those in the situation mentioned in Subparagraph 7 may be retired or laid off in accordance with the regulations, and those in the situations mentioned in Subparagraph 9 shall abide by the regulations stated in Paragraph 4.

Teachers in the situations referred to in Subparagraph 9 of Paragraph 1 should, after the assessment and approval of the Teachers' Review Committee, will be suspended from their employment within a month following the discovery of the school about those situations, and wait for the results of the investigation. If such situations are verified after the investigation, the employing school should, after having reported to the competent educational authorities and upon its ratification, dismiss the teachers.

Article 14-1 When the Teachers' Review Committee of the school reaches an agreement upon dismissal, suspension, or non-renewal employment of a teacher in accordance with Article 14, the school shall report to the competent educational authorities for approval within 10 days of the agreement, and also notify the party in writing, stating its reasons. Before the competent educational authorities approve the dismissal, suspension, or non-renewal employment of the teacher, when the current employment expires, the school shall continue to employ the teacher temporarily.

Article 14-2 During the suspension of the teacher, the school shall reserve the position until the reasons for suspension are concluded, and shall continue to employ the teacher under the agreement of the Teachers' Review Committee of the school. When a teacher is suspended in accordance with the law, and the employment expires before the reasons for suspension are concluded, the Teachers' Review Committee of the school shall investigate in accordance with regulations to see if continuing employment is appropriate.

Article 14-3 A teacher suspended in accordance with Article 14 shall be given half of the base salary (seniority salary) during the period of suspension; when the teacher is once more employed after the reasons for suspension have been concluded, the difference in base salaries (seniority salaries) shall become retroactive. However, if a teacher is under the following situations, his/her salary during the period of suspension shall not be given in accordance with this Article:

1. When a teacher is under imprisonment or detention, or is fined, but is paid during imprisonment or detention instead.
2. When a teacher is in situations referred to Paragraph 4 of Article 14, then s/he shall not be given half of the base salary (seniority salary) during the period of suspension, when a teacher is again employed after the reasons for suspension have been concluded, the difference in base salaries (seniority salaries) shall become retroactive.

Article 15 Due to the course adjustment of departments, graduate institutes, subjects, and divisions, or the class reduction, suspension of operations, or dissolution of schools, the school or the authorized educational authorities shall first help transfer those qualified teachers who would like to continue teaching or have other suitable work; those who are incompetent for their current positions or are already unemployed and have no other suitable work to transfer, or proved by public hospitals to be physically too weak to handle their work shall be reported to the authorized educational authorities and laid off after approval.

Article 15-1 Teachers who are first helped to transfer by schools or competent educational authorities in accordance with the preceding Article may not be employed if found in any of the situations mentioned in the subparagraphs of Paragraph 1 of Article 14 by the Teachers' Review Committee of the school.

Teachers transferred by competent educational authorities in accordance with the regulations of the National Education Law can also apply to the regulation of the preceding paragraph.

Chapter IV Rights and Obligations

Article 16 After the teacher accepts employment, s/he can enjoy the following rights in accordance with the relevant laws and school rules and regulations:

1. Bring up constructive opinions regarding teaching and administration of the school.
2. Enjoy the rights and protection in terms of payment, fringe benefits, retirement, consolation, severance, and insurance, etc.
3. Participate in in-service education, research, and academic exchanges.
4. Join teachers' organizations, and attend other activities held in accordance with the regulations.
5. Appeal in accordance with the law when the measures taken by the authorized educational authorities or schools against the teacher are considered by him/her to be illegal or inappropriate and have damaged his/her interests.
6. Enjoy professional autonomy in teaching and student counseling in accordance with law and school rules and regulations.
7. Can refuse to take part in work or activities irrelevant to teaching assignments by the authorized educational authorities or the school, unless otherwise specified according to law.
8. Enjoy other legitimate rights in accordance with this law or other laws.

Article 17 Other than fulfilling their employment responsibilities in accordance with law, teachers have the following obligations:

1. Abide by the regulations specified in the employment contract and maintain school honor.
2. Actively protect students' rights to education.
3. Implement teaching activities in accordance with relevant laws and the courses arranged by the school.
4. Guide and discipline students to grow adaptively and develop sound personalities.
5. Conduct research and studies related to teaching.
6. Take full responsibilities of the position and exalts a teacher's dignity and profession out of clear conscience.
7. Attend academic and administrative activities of the school, as well as social education activities in accordance with relevant laws.

8. Shall not disclose personal or family information of students unless otherwise specified by law.
9. Take the role of a homeroom teacher.
10. Fulfill other obligations in accordance with this law or other laws. The regulations in Subparagraphs 4 and 9 of the preceding paragraph shall be prescribed by the school council meeting of respective schools.

Article 18 Teachers who violate the regulations in Article 17 will be dealt with by the school in accordance with relevant laws after being appraised by the Teachers' Review Committee.

Article 18-1 Teachers can ask for leaves because of marriage, funerals, illness, childbirth, or other legitimate reasons in accordance with Teachers' Leave Regulations.

The Teachers' Leave Regulations referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include type and number of days of leave, procedures, check of responsibilities, violation handling, and other relevant items. The regulations shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Chapter V Payment

Article 19 Teachers' payment can be divided into three kinds: base salaries, allowances, and bonuses.

The base salaries of teachers at high schools and lower levels shall be paid according to their academic background and experience, and seniority; the base salaries of teachers at junior colleges and higher levels shall be paid according to their rankings, academic background and experience, and seniority.

There are three kinds of allowances: position, academic research, and district allowances.

Article 20 The payment of teachers shall be separately stipulated by law.

Chapter VI Further Studies and Research

Article 21 To elevate educational quality and to encourage the further studies and research of teachers at all levels, the related competent educational authorities and schools shall establish institutions or organizations for further studies and research based on actual needs; its regulations shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 22 Teachers of all levels, when in service, shall be actively engaged in further studies and research on knowledge related to teaching; the reward regulations for the further studies and research of teachers shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 23 Teachers engaged in in-service education are entitled to leave and pay or leave without pay; the funds for further studies and research shall be budgeted by the school or the competent educational authorities. The relevant regulations shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Chapter VII Retirement, Consolation, Separation, Severance, and Insurance

Article 24 The payment for teachers' retirement, consolation, separation, severance, and insurance is in the form of savings, which is called the pension fund, jointly contributed by the school and the teachers. The pension payment shall be guaranteed by the government. The retirement, consolation, and severance pay for the teacher whose seniority was accumulated before the savings system shall be given in accordance with the previous regulations. When the teacher leaves her/his post after several years of service, s/he shall be given the savings contributed to him/her from the pension fund.

The savings referred to in the preceding paragraph are contributed in proportion to the monthly salary of the teacher and by the school.

When the teacher transfers between public schools and private schools, the seniority accumulated for retirement, consolidation, and severance pay shall be carried over.

Article 25 An organization in charge of the contribution, management, and operation of the teachers' pension fund shall be set up. The teachers' retirement, consolidation, separation, severance, and insurance shall be separately stipulated by law.

Chapter VIII Teachers' Organizations

Article 26 There are three levels of teachers' organizations: the School Teachers' Association at the school level; the Local Teachers' Association at the municipal and county (city) levels; the National Teachers' Association at the central level.

When the school has a class number smaller than 20, it may co-form-coordinate a cross-district (township, town) School Teachers' Association with other schools.

The establishment of teachers' organizations at all levels shall go through the process of notification and registration to the competent authorities pursuant to the regulations of the People's Organization Law. The Local Teachers' Association shall consist of half of the School Teachers' Associations in the district it has established. The National Teachers' Association shall consist of half of the Local Teachers' Associations it has established.

Article 27 The basic missions of teachers' organizations at all levels are as follows:

1. Maintain teachers' professional dignity and autonomy.
2. Reach agreements with authorities at all levels on teachers' employment and provisions governing it.
3. Study and help solve all kinds of educational problems.
4. Monitor the management, operation, and payment, etc. of the organization in charge of the separation fund payment.
5. Send representatives to join statutory organizations at the employment, appeal, and other related matters of teachers.
6. Stipulate Teachers' Self-discipline Agreement.

Article 28 The school can not ask the teacher not to participate in teachers' organizations nor hold any position for them as a requirement of employment. The school can not refuse to employ the teacher, dismiss the teacher, or take other unfavorable actions against the teacher because of his/her participation in teachers' organizations.

Chapter IX Appeals and Litigations

Article 29 When a teacher considers the measures taken against him/her by the competent educational authority or the school illegal or inappropriate, and so his/her rights are damaged, s/he can appeal to the Teachers' Appeal Review Committee at all levels.

The Teachers' Appeal Review Committee shall include representatives from the teachers' organizations or their branches and educational scholars from the district, and the number of teachers not involved in the administration shall be smaller than two-thirds of the total number. However, during the investigation and litigation period regarding the appeal concerning the school of a committee member, that member shall avoid this case; the organization and review standards shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 30 The Teachers' Appeal Review Committees can be categorized into the following levels:

1. The school and central levels for junior colleges and higher levels.
2. County (city), provincial, and central levels for high schools and lower levels.

Article 31 The procedure of the teacher's appeal can be divided into two levels: appeal and re-appeal.

If the teacher is not satisfied with the results of the appeal, s/he can file a re-appeal. The school and the competent educational authorities can do the same if they are not satisfied with the results of the appeal.

Article 32 After the appeal has been reviewed and finalized, the competent educational authorities shall execute it thoroughly, and the review report shall be sent to the person in question, the competent authority, and the teachers' organization of the district, at the same time.

Article 33 If the teacher does not wish to appeal nor is not satisfied with the results of the appeal and re-appeal, s/he can file litigation based on its nature according to law, or ask for aid in accordance with the Rules on Administrative Appeal or the Administrative Litigation Law or other related regulations such as protection laws.

Chapter X Supplementary Provisions

Article 34 The qualifications of those that already received the post as a teacher before this law was enacted shall be protected.

Article 35 The certification and accreditation of part-time teacher qualifications at schools of all levels shall be implemented in accordance with the regulations of this law.

The rights and obligations of part-time, probation, and substitute teachers shall be governed by the regulations prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

The qualifications of professional, technical subjects, and nursing teachers for military training and nursing courses at schools of all levels, shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the Statute Governing the Appointment of Educators.

Article 35-1 The dismissal, appeals, further studies, payment, fringe benefits, severance of nursing teachers in paragraph 3 of the preceding article, apply to the teacher's relevant laws.

Nursing teachers that are transferred by authorized educational authorities, who are qualified teachers of health and nursing courses, can not continue teaching due to the revision of military training and nursing courses pertaining to when this law was amended and enforced from 2006 to July 31, 2008, designated, should be transferred to health and nursing teachers. The transfer rules shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

According to the preceding paragraph deadline, nursing teachers who are qualified teachers of health and nursing courses, that have not been transferred to health and nursing teachers designated, can be transferred continuously to health and nursing teachers designated beginning from December 9, 2012 to December 9, 2014.

Article 36 All relevant regulations stipulated in this law shall apply mutatis mutandis to full-time teachers of public kindergartens and private kindergartens already registered as a foundation.

The relevant regulations stipulated in this law shall also apply mutatis mutandis to full-time teachers of private kindergartens not yet registered as a foundation except for Article 24 and 25 of this law.

Article 36-1 The teachers' appeal regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to school presidents at all levels in filing appeals.

Article 37 The Ministry of Education shall invite representatives of the National Teachers' Association to participate in the stipulation of the regulations that this law authorizes the Ministry of Education to prescribe.

Article 38 The enforcement rules of this law shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Education.

Article 39 This law shall enter into force from the date of promulgation. However, the implementation date of the payment, retirement, consolation, separation, severance, and insurance part shall be ordained by the Executive Yuan; the articles of this law amended on the November 6, 2009 take effect on the November 23, 2009.

